

This is a travesty: using the public airwaves as a puppet for political interests. Communication in this GREAT country needs to be directed to better ends.